
One-page story plan

A little room to think. Leave anything you're not ready to answer.

Working title

The spark: what if...?

Who wants what?

What stands in the way?

What could change — or be lost?

Possibilities & revision notes

Character sheet

A little room to think. Leave anything you're not ready to answer.

Name & role in the story

What do they want?

What might they need?

A fear or contradiction

Relationships that matter

Their voice: a line they might say

Details & revision notes

Chapter tracker

A little room to think. Leave anything you're not ready to answer.

A chapter, a scene, a poem or an episode. Use the pieces that suit your work.

No.	Title / what changes	Status	Revision notes
01
02
03
04
05
06
07
08
09
10
11

The next small step

Theme tracker

A little room to think. Leave anything you're not ready to answer.

The idea or question you keep returning to

What are you exploring?

No.	Chapter / scene	How the idea develops
01
02
03
04
05
06
07

Questions & revision notes

Pacing worksheet

A little room to think. Leave anything you're not ready to answer.

Your impression of reading speed. Reflective, unhurried, steady, brisk or fast — each has its place.

No.	Chapter / scene	Your pace	Revision notes
01
02
03
04
05
06

Sketch the rhythm of your work

Fast
Steady
Reflective

Where might the work need a breath — or momentum?
